AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE 03-97
PERMITTING THE CHIEF OF POLICE TO DESIGNATE CERTAIN PORTIONS OF THE
PUBLIC RIGHT-OF-WAY AS RESERVED
PARKING SPACES FOR HANDICAPPED PERSONS.

BE IT HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF HIGHLAND HEIGHTS, KENTUCKY
AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION I

The police chief shall designate from time to time reserved parking spaces in the city to be located in publicly owned parking lots, and on public streets where there is provided on street parking, so as to accommodate handicapped persons as defined in Kentucky Revised Statute 189.456.

SECTION II

Handicapped persons who have obtained a special parking permit from the Campbell County Clerk, pursuant to KRS 189.456, shall make application with the chief of police for a handicapped parking space. If the chief of police finds that the person making the application has obtained the required permit from the Campbell County Clerk, and that local ordinances or state statutes do not prohibit parking on the street, he shall designate a reserved handicapped parking space in the front, rear or side of the residence of a handicapped person, if there is no off street parking accommodating such residence, or if the off street parking that accommodates the residence is in the chief of police's opinion, unusable or impractical for use by the handicapped person.

SECTION III

There shall be a one time fee of $50.00 for the establishment of the reserved handicapped parking space permitted pursuant to this ordinance to help defray the cost of signage and processing.

SECTION IV

The handicapped person shall be subject to all other local ordinances and state statutes governing the parking of vehicles on the street where the reserved space has been designed including but not limited to the provisions of KRS 189.456 and 186.042.

SECTION V

The handicapped person making the application pursuant to this ordinance shall be required to register annually with the Highland Heights police department within five (5) days of the anniversary of the date in which the handicapped reserved parking space is first designated.

SECTION VI

Any person who occupies the designated reserved handicapped parking space created pursuant to this ordinance with a vehicle they are operating or exercising control of and do not possess the proper permit shall be subject to the same penalty provisions of KRS 189.456 and 189.990(1).

SECTION VII
